ABOUT ME

I can help you design an architecture, implement the solution and deploy it to a host of your choice. I can offer my services with:

- Web APIs in Python (Flask)
- Web Apps in Django
- AWS-specific applications (Lambda, API Gateway, S3, SES, RDS)
- Data Scraping
- Deployment - basic linux administration, setting up web servers, SQL databases

PROJECTS

I've started working on Upwork in February of 2016. Since then I've worked on 50+ different projects. Some of my recent projects include:

- Data warehouse system for a real estate analysis firm
- Stock report web app for a financial enthusiast
- YouTube archiver for MLB (baseball) season of 2016 for company specializing in sport analysis
- Flask based API for company offering WiFi management platform for hotels
- Data scraper for historic Bitcoin pricing

You can read more about them on my portfolio site.
